

Rejoice (Gloria)

Text: Evelina Gard

Musik: Evelina Gard, Magnus Ahlgren

Every tree and every flower reveals a glimpse of Your power And every newborn's a reflection of the creator of perfection

Oh oh there's no one like our God oh oh raise your hands and sing a song of praise

Rejoice in Him, and again I say rejoice Rejoice in Him, and again I say rejoice (always rejoice)
Rejoice in Him, and again I say rejoice
Rejoice in Him, and again I say rejoice

In every land and every nation we tell the story of salvation where could we find a love that's greater than the love of our creator

Rejoice in Him Rejoice and again I say Rejoice rejoice
Clap your hands make some noise
Rejoice

Rejoice
always always and again I say rejoice
Always rejoice
Rejoice in Him, and again I say rejoice
Rejoice in Him, and again I say rejoice
